Bathroom Sluts by Amateur Lesbian Video

Video Review

Sweet

by Wickie Stamps

Fatale Videos, producer of lesbian porn videos, has a new line of amateur videos. "Bathroom Sluts" Dykestyles #1, is the group's first attempt at reproducing home video submitted by, you guessed it, five dykes slutting it up in their bathroom.

This 45-minute color video, which includes black and white stills of our girls, is packed with a wide range of dyke sex, including light S & M. Very cute (and very young) dykes, who are contortionists with a high tolerance for cold tile floors, fuck and frolic in the tub, on the toilet and in the shower. While in the shower stall, one of the usually peeking over the top watching her pals.

In Sluts there's shaving, finger and dildo fucking, tons of kissing, nipple sucking and a very hot blow job. There's also whipping, submission and fisting. (Due to obscenity laws, details of the fisting scene are obscured.) All of the sluts, who also have some very nice tattoos, are quite hot in their leather collars, jackets, black boots and maid outfits.

The video concludes with our five stars chatting about why they made the video, and what it was like to have sex before a camera. None had ever had sex before a camera and with the exception of one couple, none had even had sex with each other. All agreed it was very important for them to produce a video of "politically aware" lesbians having sex; all were committed to representing the "diversity of their bodies." And one young, heavy woman stated that having sex before a camera helped her get over seeing obesity as a negative sexual trait. Also, Heidi confessed that Sluts was her debut using a strap-on dildo.

Bathroom Sluts is long overdue in lesbian porn. It is one of the many videos that features lesbians having safe sex, but one of the few that uses dykes, two of whom are butch, who are clearly lesbian. Too often we are forced to watch very straight-looking women, many of whom are actresses and heterosexual. The diversity of body types in Sluts is also a refreshing change. Also, despite their lack of experience in front of camera, which at points is literally crawling up their crotches, all five women appear extremely comfortable expressing their sexuality. They are truly a joy to watch. The butch-on-butch sex, as well as dykes with multiple sex partners, adds to the Sluts enjoyment factor.

Bathroom Sluts is definitely a hot little video. The young, collared dyke is definitely steamy as is Heidi wielding her first strap-on dildo. Who cares if her aim was a bit off! She'll learn! Overall, I'd say these sluts are a wild lot with whom any of us would just die to get trapped in the ladies room. My only complaint is that the video is long and after awhile, the music (by the Cumrads) is tiresome.

At the end of Sluts, Heidi, who like all of the dykes, felt the video pushed her beyond her sexual limits, says she got beyond her camera shyness by convincing herself that she was having sex to serve the "lesbian community at large."

She can serve us anytime.
